DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 8, 9, 18, 25 are hereby withdrawn from consideration due to the election of species in figures 3A-3C in the response filed 04/08/05. Newly added figure 3D shows a new species that corresponds to claims 8, 9, 18 and 25, which was not elected in the response.

Drawings

2. The drawings were received on 07/05/05. These drawings are acceptable.

Claim Objections

3. Objections to the claims are hereby withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claim 33 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

6. Claim 33 recites the limitation "the second retainer" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3724

8. Claim 1-5, 10, 16, 17, 20, 21, 26, 28, 30 and 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Durcho (5,133,138). Durcho discloses first magnet having a first polarity 60; primary tool 12; second magnet having a second polarity 36; secondary tool 10; it is inherent that one of the elements 36, 60 has a positive polarity and the other has a negative polarity; receptacle 48, 50; handle member is the exterior surface of element 12; the heel 12 is inherently a hand tool because it can be used to dig, or to perforate materials such as plastic and paper; magnetic force is inherent between two magnets.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claim 15 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Durcho. Durcho discloses the claimed invention except for a minimum magnetic force of 4000 gauss. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide a minimum force of 400 gauss, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233. It would have been obvious to provide a minimum magnetic force of 4000 gauss in order to prevent the secondary and primary tool from coming out of engagement while assembling the tools together.

Allowable Subject Matter

Art Unit: 3724

11. Claims 6, 7, 11, 27 and 29 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Durcho teaches a primary tool and a secondary tool secured together via magnets having different polarity, however, Durcho does not teach the use of magnets to secure cutting tools together. It would not have been obvious to combine the references with other prior art teaching to meet the claim limitations.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-34 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
